Program Title		“Purple Presentations”
Hours	6-10	Presentation Format:	Microsoft PowerPoint
Course Description		When you are asked or choose to make a presentation, is your first thought “I can’t do this?” In meetings, committees or social situations, do you have good ideas and contributions but are uncomfortable voicing them for fear of a lack of skill or polish? Do audiences take “vacations” when you speak or appear relieved when a break is announced? If any of these situations sound familiar, this course will give you the step by step skills and hands on practice necessary to plan, speak, and motivate any audience you are called upon to address. And it will be fun!
Highlights		This program teaches how to be effective, exciting, and remembered in any presentation you give!
Special Points		Participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn how to reduce nervousness before and after speaking • Learn how to structure what they say. • Learn how to determine the purpose of their information • Find their talent base and expand it • Learn how to overcome mental blocks and gain experience through comfortable practice • Learn how to present proficient information • Learn how to meet the 7 needs all audiences have • Learn how to be ready for any and all questions or comments—positive and negative! • Learn how to locate the prisoners, vacationers, graduates and students in every audience and practice how to treat them differently
